R.B. Murray Company Co-Vice Presidents Earn Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) Designations

R.B. Murray Company recently announced that Co-Vice Presidents Ryan Murray and Ross Murray distinguished themselves as second-generation Certified Commercial Investment members.

The two followed the example of their father, Co-Vice President David Murray, who achieved CCIM designation in 1979.

While just 6 percent of real estate practitioners in the US hold the CCIM designation, R.B. Murray Company now has four CCIMs on staff.
